DID YOU KNOW?

The ABLE ACT is operating now operating in four states – Nebraska, Florida, Ohio and Tennessee. All but Florida allow out of state beneficiaries to open accounts. Each state that offers the ABLE account differs slightly from the others when it comes to fees and funding minimums. You can open an account in another state and then transfer it to Oregon when its ABLE Accounts are due to open in Dec., 2016. -With appreciation to Fitzwater Meyer Hollis & Marmion, LLP for this vital information.
